1. The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.
2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371© of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being fully met by either of Suzuki "688, "700, "560 or "002.

Each patent discloses an actuator carried by a human wherein the actuator is moved through a trajectory which provides a corresponding control signal for a tone generator.

Art Unit: 2837

4. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being fully met by either of Hiyoshi "313, "969 or "964.

Each patent discloses an actuator carried by a human wherein the actuator is moved through a trajectory which provides a corresponding control signal for a tone generator.

5. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being fully met by either of Suzuki "311 or "480.

Each patent discloses an actuator carried by a human wherein the actuator is swung through a trajectory which provides a corresponding control signal for a tone generator.

6. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being fully met by Por Paul.

This patent discloses an actuator carried by a human wherein the actuator is swung through a trajectory which provides a corresponding control signal for a tone generator.

7. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

Art Unit: 2837

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

8. Claims 1-20 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-20 of copending Application No. 09/948,065. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

9. Only one priority document has been filed in this application. If the other document is in the parent application, a positive statement to that effect is required identifying the parent by serial number or a copy of that document is required to be filed herein to obtain benefits under 35 USC 119 for that document.
